

Amalgamation

Question:

Dear __, You would already be aware I'm sure of the latest and very effective detailed attack on EG White which here In Britain is having a most devastating effect (especially on those already weak in the faith and even a lot of potential converts too. Again one document rallies the filthy lies about where she is accused of saying that black people are the result of man amalgamating with animals; the other document accuses her of getting her inspiration from her dead husband and concludes by thoroughly declaring her a false prophet of the highest order. I know personally that this is sewer garbage; but do you have documented materials to effectively refute this Satanic trash; and/or audio/video talks with that hard evidences which would smash this vile and diabolical attack? MR.

AMALGAMATION INFORMATION

From Websters 1828 dictionary.

Here is W C White in a letter answering Froom and mentioning amalgamation: (There is a lot more to this letter, but not on amalgamation)

"REGARDING THE TWO PARAGRAPHS WHICH ARE TO BE FOUND IN SPIRITUAL GIFTS AND ALSO IN THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY REGARDING AMALGAMATION AND THE REASON WHY THEY WERE LEFT OUT OF THE LATER BOOKS, AND THE QUESTION AS TO WHO TOOK THE RESPONSIBILITY OF LEAVING THEM OUT, I CAN SPEAK WITH PERFECT CLEARNESS AND ASSURANCE. THEY WERE LEFT OUT BY ELLEN G. WHITE. NO ONE CONNECTED WITH HER WORK HAD ANY AUTHORITY OVER SUCH A QUESTION, AND I NEVER HEARD OF ANYONE OFFERING TO HER COUNSEL REGARDING THIS MATTER. {3SM 452.3}

IN ALL QUESTIONS OF THIS KIND, YOU MAY SET IT DOWN AS A CERTAINTY THAT SISTER WHITE WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR LEAVING OUT OR ADDING TO MATTERS OF THIS SORT IN THE LATER EDITIONS OF OUR BOOKS. {3SM 452.4}

SISTER WHITE NOT ONLY HAD GOOD JUDGMENT BASED UPON A CLEAR AND COMPREHENSIVE UNDERSTANDING OF CONDITIONS AND OF THE NATURAL CONSEQUENCES OF PUBLISHING WHAT SHE WROTE, BUT SHE HAD MANY TIMES DIRECT INSTRUCTION FROM THE ANGEL OF THE LORD REGARDING WHAT SHOULD BE OMITTED AND WHAT SHOULD BE ADDED IN NEW EDITIONS.... {3SM 452.5}

These references are before the flood:

"But if there was one sin above another which called for the destruction of the race by the flood, it was the base crime of amalgamation of man and beast which defaced the image of God, and caused confusion everywhere. God purposed to destroy by a flood that powerful, long-lived race that had corrupted their ways before him. He would not suffer them to live out the days of their natural life, which would be hundreds of years. It was only a few generations back when Adam had access to that tree which was to prolong life. After his disobedience he was not suffered to eat of the tree of life and perpetuate a life of sin. In order for man to possess an endless life he must continue to eat of the fruit of the tree of life. Deprived of that tree, his life would gradually wear out." {1SP 69.1}

"Instead of doing justice to their neighbors, they carried out their own unlawful wishes. They had a plurality of wives, which was contrary to God's wise arrangement. In the beginning God gave to Adam one wife--showing to all who should live upon the earth, his order and law in that respect. The transgression and fall of Adam and Eve brought sin and wretchedness upon the human race, and man followed his own carnal desires, and changed God's order. The more men multiplied wives to themselves, the more they increased in wickedness and unhappiness. If one chose to take the wives, or cattle, or anything belonging to his neighbor, he did not regard justice or right, but if he could prevail over his neighbor by reason of strength, or by putting him to death, he did so, and exulted in his deeds of violence. They loved to destroy the lives of animals. They used them for food, and this increased their ferocity and violence, and caused them to look upon the blood of human beings with astonishing indifference.

God purposed to destroy by a flood that powerful, long-lived race that had corrupted their ways before him. He would not suffer them to live out the days of their natural life, which would be hundreds of years." 3SG 63.11

Notice how it is brought out that this practice caused confusion and in another quote in this paper it is shown that the worship of false gods brings confusion and degradation.

Beast Worship

It is interesting that man began worshipping nature and the forces of nature before the flood and in doing so eating of the flesh of animals and great cruelty committed in their acts of worship did occur. We have no clear idea of what went on back then but from the worship that later developed after the tower of Babel, promoted by Nimrod and Semerimis we see what was no doubt a similar style of worship. The killing and eating of bulls and other animals to obtain their 'life energy' has always been a part of pagan worship. The Bull was the sun god, the generative power. Sun worship was linked with Bull worship. In one Pagan festivity a bull would be led up onto a platform where round wafers representing the sun-god were placed. (Like the RCC 'Host') When the bull would eat the wafers—he was considered to have the incarnate power of the indwelling sun—and would be killed and torn to pieces and eaten to obtain this so-called 'power'. This worship was really a form of the worship of sex.

The Bible is clear that the pagan worship was the same as before the flood.

Jos 24:14 Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

Jos 24:15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

This quote is both before and after flood and to me indicates a reference to the deterioration of both man and animal; nothing here really indicates any cross breeding between man and animal and could rather apply to inbreeding producing deterioration.

"Every species of animals which God had created was preserved in the ark. The confused species which God did not create, which were the result of amalgamation, were destroyed by the flood. Since the flood, there has been amalgamation of man and beast as may be seen in the almost endless varieties of species of animals, and in certain races of men." {1 SP 78.2}

"Every species of animal which God had created were preserved in the ark. The confused species which God did not create, which were the result of amalgamation, were destroyed by the flood. Since the flood there has been amalgamation of man and beast, as may be seen in the almost endless varieties of species of animals, and in certain races of men." {3SG 75.2}

The next quote seems to indicate that Satan has done some of the genetic corruption we see in nature:

"Christ never planted the seeds of death in the system. Satan planted these seeds when he tempted Adam to eat of the tree of knowledge which meant disobedience to God. Not one noxious plant was placed in the Lord's great garden, but after Adam and Eve sinned, poisonous herbs sprang up. In the parable of the sower the question was asked the master, "Didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?" The master answered, "An enemy hath done this" (Matt. 13:27, 28). All tares are sown by the evil one. Every noxious herb is of his sowing, and by his ingenious methods of amalgamation he has corrupted the earth with tares." {2SM 288.2} (Manuscript 65, 1899 (General Manuscript).

Here is another quote that gives a clue as to how she uses the word.

"Those who profess to be followers of Christ, should be living agencies, co-operating with heavenly intelligences; but by union with the world, the character of God's people becomes tarnished, and through amalgamation with the corrupt, the fine gold becomes dim. When worldly agencies are introduced into the church, it is evident that Satan is carrying out his devices, working through those who profess to be followers of Christ, making them ready at any time to engage with him in disheartening and discouraging those who are faithful, who would stand wholly on the Lord's side." {RH, August 23, 1892 par. 3}

Here is the use of the word AMALGAMATED:

"This was a plain statement that the Jews were more nearly correct in the principles of their religion than any other nation. Jesus also alluded to the faith of the Samaritans being amalgamated with the worship of graven images. True, they held that these idols were only to remind them of the living God, the Ruler of the universe; but, nevertheless, the people were led to reverence these inanimate figures." {2SP 144.11}

"There is no middle path to Paradise restored. The message given to man for these last days is not to become amalgamated with human devising. We are not to lean upon the policy of worldly lawyers. We must be humble men of prayer, not acting like those who are blinded by Satan's agencies. The greatest light and blessing that God has bestowed is not a security against transgression and apostasy in these last days. Those whom God has exalted to high positions of trust may turn from heaven's light to human wisdom. Their light will then become darkness, their God-entrusted capabilities a snare, their character an offense to God." {UL 310.2}

"The message given man to proclaim in these last days is not to be amalgamated with worldly opinions. In these days of peril, nothing but obedience will keep man from apostasy. God has bestowed on man great light and many blessings. But unless this light and these blessings are received, they are no security against apostasy and disobedience. When those whom God has exalted to positions of high trust turn from Him to human wisdom, their light becomes darkness, and how great is that darkness! Their entrusted capabilities are a snare to them. They are become an offense to God".... {UL 318.4}

"In endeavoring to harmonize with worldly sentiments, Dr. Kellogg does not discern the influences that are exercised upon the commandment-keeping people of God. His spiritual eyesight is not clear. Not all of his work is approved by God. No one who has had the light of truth before him for years, and has not yielded to its influence, can be expected to be sensitive to the clear, gospel sentiments of the truth. There is constant danger that the obedient and the disobedient in the world and in the nominal churches will become so amalgamated that the line of demarkation between him that serveth God and him that serveth Him not will become confused and indistinct." {1 8MR 26.3}

THE WORSHIP OF Man/Beast Combinations.

Most if not all of the pagan gods and goddesses were man/beast combinations.

In Egypt there were numerous part man part animal gods. The creator was even depicted as a dung beetle and these people worshipped the scarab or dung beetles as a god. This type of worship could only be degrading to any people that engaged in it and was a terrible insult to the God of heaven! Satan delights in degrading man to beast level so as to insult God. The rituals and practices of pagan worship included many disgusting practices including sodomy and bestiality, as well as torturing animals and consuming their flesh and blood to obtain their 'vital energy'. Luciferians teach that the life force of the animal is released at the moment of death and can be absorbed.

Animals, including serpents, were kept at pagan temples and worshipped, how could not bowing and worshipping something like that not deteriorate a race of people?

Please notice this quote: "The second commandment forbids the worship of the true God by images or similitudes. Many heathen nations claimed that their images were mere figures or symbols by which the Deity was worshiped, but God has declared such worship to be sin. The attempt to represent the Eternal One by material objects would lower man's conception of God. The mind, turned away from the infinite perfection of Jehovah, would be attracted to the creature rather than to the Creator. And as his conceptions of God were lowered, so would man become degraded." {PP 306.1}

Even to this day we have these pagan practices carried on in the world, bull fighting for one; in Tibet they raise a 'sacred' bear as a pet and then torture it to death; in one oriental country they trap a tiger and starve and torment it until it is exhausted then tear it to pieces and eat it, to get the tiger spirit. China dogs are slowly beaten to death and many animals are tortured and many animal parts eaten to obtain the 'life energy' or 'chi' of the animal.

Babel and Babylon had the Lion or bull with a man's head, or the man with a lion or bull's head, or the man with the bull's horns.

Moloch, Chemosh, Baal were part Bull or calf. And also Dagon the fish god, part man and part fish.

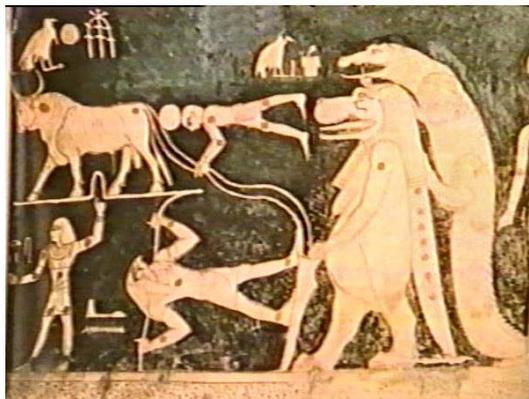

Here are pictures of some of these man-beast gods.

Lion; Bull; and Winged Serpent gods.

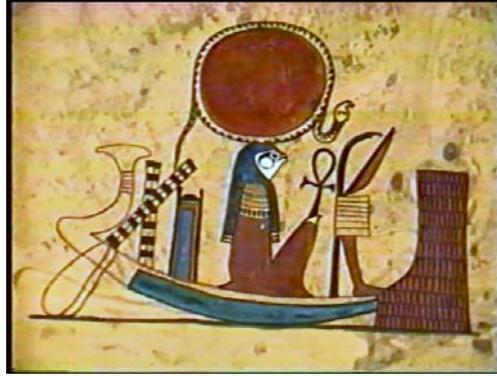

Anubis (sp) the Jackal headed god of hell here judging the dead by weighing their hearts.

Here is Nimrod fighting the bull then in the seal he is shown wearing the horns and being part bull, then he killed the lion and was part bull and part lion. (Real nice guy).

It was by idolizing the powers of the beasts and worshipping them that man was reduced to terrible savagery.

Interesting too that Semaramis, Nimrod's wife was 'queen of heaven' and called the 'heavenly dove' or 'dove goddess' and was depicted as part woman and part bird.

The Philistine god Dagon

"Instead of doing justice to their neighbors, they carried out their own unlawful wishes. They had a plurality of wives, which was contrary to God's wise arrangement. In the beginning, God gave to Adam one wife--showing to all who should live upon the earth, his order and law in that respect. The transgression and fall of Adam and Eve brought sin and wretchedness upon the human race, and man followed his own carnal desires, and changed God's order. This exulting in deeds of violence and the taking of multiple wives are just 2 examples of corruption that came because of worshiping the characteristics of beasts and man/beast idols.

Please note that corruption of the races was promoted by this marrying of many wives. If you have 5 men and 5 women, all unrelated and they marry and produce 5 children, all of those children are unrelated to each other, each having a distinct gene-pool. But if one man takes the 5 wives and kills the other 4 males, then has 5 children, those 5 are partly related, the gene pool is greatly narrowed.

Then if you add incest, which was usually a part of the picture, you get what in animal breeding is called 'line-breeding' and the gene pool is greatly reduced with the characteristics of that one sire becoming very prominent. Because the sire would be a man of lust and passion, this would greatly deteriorate the races!!

Because of what EGW was talking about in the 2 main references from Spiritual Gifts & SOP volumes, I do believe that these degrading practices were what is meant by amalgamation practices which caused degradation of both men and animal races.

I am deeply concerned these days as I see in the growing interconnected 'New Age' movement and their fascination with the animism-spirit worship of the native North Americans all over Canada and USA. We see a 'worship' and exalting of the wolf-spirit, the eagle-spirit and other savage beasts. Everywhere you go you see lovely pictures and statues of these savage animals; now there is nothing wrong with the animal as it is in its place in nature, but when worshipped and used as a role model; that is trouble! I used to like them until I saw where this was leading and I dropped it. Just maybe when God commanded us not to make graven images—He meant what He said for a reason??

The Native Indians are holding more dances and powwows all the time and doing their spirit dances and rituals all over the place. In all these dances animal spirits are invoked and animal parts worn by the dancers. In areas like I have lived and now live, near reservations, the natives which a few years back kept a low profile are becoming more proud and bold as they scrap any Christianity they once had (except Catholicism of course) and return to these spirit worshipping practices. In many areas crime is skyrocketing and people don't know what to do. Thievery is rampant.

Out in Saskatchewan where I was living before, the GOVERNMENT built a large woman's prison planned to take female offenders and integrate them back into their tribes. This is fine, but the people who would be doing the teaching were the shamans (witch doctors) and spiritual leaders of the tribes and the 'worship' area was a round amphitheater with a fire pit for doing their spirit dances! The whole building was designed to appear from the air in the shape of the eagle god of the tribe. Trouble is brewing big time! And even Christians and SDAs see no problem with it.

We see even modern man hungering after the power of beasts, demonstrated in movies and stories about shape-changing and mutant animal-man combinations, Halloween costumes, and painting the faces of children to appear like their favorite animals—even in material taught in our colleges we see mediations recommended where the person imagines he is an animal.

Truly we need to be far more wary of practices which originated in pagan worship.
