

Kenya 2008 Prime Minister

I am getting some interesting information about our PM and his involvement with the occult. The Lord made me meet somebody yesterday who has a lot of info on that.

Our PM belongs to the Luo people (Kisumu city is their stronghold), and his particular lineage has a history with the occult. This person I met yesterday seems to have much info. He has offered to give some time into taking me to some sites and to see some Luo elders who have the history.

He told me of a stone on which is written various covenants that are seemingly to guide our nation. Now that the PM is in his current position in the govt, we can expect him to carry out what the stone says.

There is a hill where this stone came from and where these occult people meet every August and December to offer sacrifices. The spirits communicate with them and it seems that they are the ones who speak through that stone. Strange things happen on that hill - bleeding trees, voices from unseen "people" ... strange things.

Our PM has been going there regularly and there is a stone that was the sign that he would win the elections. It gave him confidence and things went on the way they did.

Obama is related to our present Prime Minister -- there is a connection somewhere along the family line. But how he is linked with the chaos that took place I am yet to establish.
