THE LUCIS TRUST   (LUCIFER TRUST)

The Lucifer Trust was originally founded in London, in 1923. The name was changed from Lucifer Trust to Lucis Trust to make the nature of the organization less obvious. It is the leading, socially respectable Satanic cult (it worships Lucifer).

There is only one religious chapel at the UN Headquarters - the Meditation room which is run by - of all groups - the Lucis Trust! In 1963, the Lucis Trust founded a more distanced front group, the Temple of Understanding, which worked directly out of the U.N. premises until in 1984 when it shifted to the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. The Lucis Trust and the Temple remain covertly entwined to this day.

THE LUCIFER TRUST changed its name to THE LUCIS TRUST

THE LUCIS TRUST sets up THE MEDITATION ROOM in the UN building.

THE LUCIS TRUST also sets up THE TEMPLE OF UNDERSTANDING in the UN.

THE TEMPLE OF UNDERSTANDING relocated to THE CATHEDRAL OF ST JOHN THE DIVINE (This is an Anglican church in New York City not far from the UN building).

The Temple of Understanding calls itself a "Spiritual United Nations" and it has NGO status at the UN. The Temple of Understanding is committed to identifying and providing interfaith resources and education. It holds interfaith events, cross-discipline collaborations and inter-religious dialogues to achieve this aim.

“Our programs address the new challenges of an interconnected, global society (aka One World Government) by advancing an innovative model of interfaith education. Our programs integrate religious literacy with cross-cultural understanding for seminarians, service providers, educators, business personnel, and the lay person.”

The Consultation for Interfaith Education (CIE) was formed by Temple of Understanding in 2002, a result of our commitment to advancing the field of interfaith education. This consortium of 12 religious and interfaith organizations facilitates network building among interfaith educators and provides opportunities for collaboration on methodologies and curricular issues. See www.globalinterfaithed.org for more information.

Founders and supporters of the Temple of Understanding include:

- Pope Paul VI
- Pope John XXIII
- Mother Teresa
- Trappist monk Thomas Merton
- the Dali Lama
- Bishop James Pike (séance-obsessed Rector of the Cathedral of St John the Divine)
- U Thant
- Egyptian President Anwar Sadat
- Indian Prime Minister Nehru
- former-First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt
- Dr. Albert Schweitzer
- Margaret Sanger (Planned Parenthood)
- Norman Thomas (Socialist)
- John D. Rockefeller (Billionaire)

Rockerfeller largely bankrolled the seed money for the organization.

Just as the United Nations constitutes the precursor of a one world government, so too, the syncretistic Temple of Understanding can be seen as the basis for a one world religion.

Pictured here is the Meditation room at U.N. headquarters in New York. This room is run by the Lucis Trust. It has been described as a pagan temple. It includes no traditional religious symbols. Secretary-General Kofi Annan was married to his Swedish wife in this room. It is believed that the earth spirit "Gaia" is worshipped in this room.

Dag Hammarskjöld personally planned and supervised in every detail the creation of the "Meditation Room".

TELE-EVANGELISTS

There are direct and curious connections between wealthy Jewish Illuminati and the top celebrity "Christian" leaders and organizations. Could it be that the Illuminati planned, funded, and set up most of these famous-name preachers and ministries? Do powerful Jews covertly guide and dictate what men like Billy Graham, Paul Crouch, Pat Robertson, James Dobson, Chuck Colson, Oral Roberts, Jerry Falwell, Pope John Paul II, and Michael Evans say and do?

For example, Pat Robertson (from CBN Network) is from an Illuminati family. His father was a U.S. Senator who was in charge of the Senate’s banking and currency committee. Pat Robertson was given his initial TV station by none other than CNN founder Ted Turner. Robertson, in turn, gave Jim and Tammy Faye Bakker (PTL Network) their start, and the Bakkers traveled to California and helped Paul and Jan Crouch, of TBN Network get their organization started and going strong.

However, when the Jim Bakker sex scandal broke, the PTL (Praise the Lord) Network became embroiled in financial difficulty and the PTL Network ended up being taken to the Federal court. In court it came out that PTL Network was owned by an Orthodox Jewish billionaire from Canada who in fact owned the whole apparatus of PTL, including all its land, buildings, and equipment.

Furthermore, Billy Graham, perhaps inadvertently, once confided to Larry King (on CNN's The Larry King Show) that his closest "spiritual advisor" is Jewish Rabbi Tannenbaum of New York City.
"I consult Rabbi Tannenbaum by phone each and every day for spiritual guidance," said Billy Graham. It is interesting to note that Rabbi Tannanbaum is a leading sponsor of the Lucis Trust.

Religion of the New World Order

(This is an interesting article. Note especially the last paragraph indicating the Masonic connection with the Lucis Trust. Ann.)

In this statement, Cardinal Hume echoes Pope John XXIII when he said

\text{'the Church today is faced with an immense task: to humanise and to Christianise this modern civilisation of ours'.}^{59}

According to the Cardinal, the Church is just a transitory development until the moment that the entire world is made one in Christ — an event which is allegedly being brought about through many different organisations cooperating with the Church in the building of the kingdom of God on earth. (Which god is this???) As Cardinal Hume puts it: 'When the whole of creation is caught up into a single symphony of love, the kingdom of God will have reached fulfillment and God will be all in all'.

The modern Ecumenical-Interfaith Movement teaches that a spark of God indwells every person unconditionally, which can be kindled into flame through practising the various mystical techniques which can be found in all the religious systems of the world. In this way, true spirituality is presented as any means by which a person can realise personal ‘God-consciousness’ or ‘Christ-consciousness’, according to whatever tradition and culture in which one happens to be living. It is, after all, only a short phonetic step from Christ to Krishna!

The Religion of the New World Order

Historically, the seduction of the United Nations into religious syncretism has been initiated primarily through the offices of three men. Two were Secretary-General of the U.N., Dag Hammarskjöld (held office 1953-1961) and U Thant (held office, 1962-1971), and one was an Assistant Secretary-General, Dr Robert Muller.

1) Dag Hammarskjöld

In a book written to celebrate the philosophy of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin (a Jesuit) and edited by Dr Robert Muller, a disciple of Teilhard, it was stated that:

'Dag Hammarskjöld, the rational Nordic economist, had ended up as a mystic. He too held at the end of his life that spirituality was the ultimate key to our earthly fate in time and space'.

In case readers may be wondering what kind of 'spirituality' Dag Hammarskjöld advocated, a leaflet about the United Nations Meditation Room written under his direction stated that its eerie lodestone altar ‘is dedicated to the God whom man worships under many names and in many forms’. (Really?)

2) U Thant
In 1973, the U.N. Secretary-General U Thant — who was also a Thai Buddhist mystic — formed the organisation 'Planetary Citizens' with Donald Keys, an international New Age activist who has close connections with the occult Findhorn Community (The Findhorn Foundation is funded by the Lucis Trust). 'Planetary Citizens' is an influential Non-Governmental Organisation (NGO) within the U.N., which is described as being specifically 'devoted to preparing people for the coming of the new culture'. In other words, it is a harbinger of the Neo-Gnostic New World Order.

3) Dr. Robert Muller
Another major player in the increasing commitment of the United Nations to interfaith universalism is Dr. Robert Muller. He first came to the U.N. in 1948, and was an Assistant Secretary-General for many years. Today he is the influential Chancellor of the United Nations Peace University. As the editor and co-author of a book in honour of Teilhard de Chardin, who had 'always viewed the United Nations as the institutional embodiment of his philosophy', (Pierre Teilhard de Chardin was a Jesuit.) Dr. Muller has also written a book entitled 'Shaping a Global Spirituality' (Doubleday, 1978/82). In another of Dr. Muller's books, 'Decide to Be', we are given a glimpse into the 'spirituality' that the Interfaith Movement is building through the offices of the United Nations. One passage reads:

'Decide to open yourself to God, to the Universe, to all your brethren and sisters, to your inner self...to the potential of the human race, to the infinity of your inner self, and you will become the universe...you will become infinity, and you will be at long last your real, divine, stupendous self'.

As a further recent indicator of the depth of the involvement of the United Nations in the interfaith movement, a meeting was held at the U.N. on April 15th 1992 in which the Roman Catholic theologian, Professor Hans Küng (Professor at Turbingen University at the same time that Jan Paulsen was a PhD candidate), gave a talk entitled Global Responsibility: A New World Ethic in a New World Order. Organised jointly by the Temple of Understanding (originally the Lucis Trust) and the Pacem in Terris Society (Peace in the Earth) and attended by two hundred guests in the Dag Hammarskjöld Auditorium, the conclusion of this meeting was that 'the United Nations has the potential for leading the way in global ethical considerations. The Golden Rule offers the nucleus of what could be a declaration of world ethics'.

The so-called ‘Golden Rule’ — that we should behave toward others as we would have them behave toward us — is being used by many in the Interfaith Movement as a starting point for syncretic universalism. Because such a saying can be found in all the world's religions, as well as in the Bible, it is concluded that both they and Christianity have the same underlying goals. The real reason that the so-called Golden Rule is such a favourite with ecumenists, interfaithists and universalists is because it means that a reductionist religious ideal can be formed which denies the fullness and necessary divisiveness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Removed from its context, it can be made to conform to the ethical, philosophical and religious doctrines of the world. So let us beware of those who wish to wrest this teaching from its context and make it into a neat universalist 'soundbite' on salvation by works, while linking up nicely behind the New Age teachings of the 'Universal Fatherhood of God' and comfortable programmes promoting global 'love and peace'.

When the second 'Parliament of the World's Religions' was held in Chicago in 1993, a 'declaration of world ethics' formulated by Dr. Hans Küng and rooted in the so-called 'Golden Rule' — which would later be ratified by the United Nations — formed a major part of its considerations. Entitled 'A Declaration of a Global Ethic', the motivation behind it is clearly shown in Dr. Küng's statement to his U.N. audience in the Dag Hammarskjöld Auditorium on April 15th 1992:

'It if we want to overcome fundamentalism we have to do it in a constructive way'.

Let it not be forgotten that for the Interfaith advocate, 'fundamentalism' is not confined to certain forms of Islam but is also identified with Evangelical Christianity. This 'Declaration' will, in effect, constitute the 'basis of faith' or 'collective creed' of the confederated religions of the New World Order, by which the strongly missionary and evangelistic foundation of Christianity will be made out to be 'divisive to the human family' and will become increasingly subjected to the forces of suppression. If we wish to identify a likely spiritual vehicle for a gathering Armageddon, we need look no further than the 'oneness' religion being manufactured through the auspices of the United Nations.

This was first apparent at the Fifth Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Nairobi in November 1975, when representatives from non-Christian religions — Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism and Sikhism — were for the first time invited to present papers. After hearing the plea from the new Secretary of the WCC for 'a dialogue with people of other faiths, people of other ideologies or of none', some members walked out (including the Bishop of London, Graham Leonard), protesting the syncretist direction the WCC was heading in.

To aid us in our understanding of the occult connections in these events, let us open up a most revealing association here. The Hindu representative who was invited to present a paper at this 1975 World Council of Churches Assembly was Professor K.L. Seshagiri Rao, the editor of a magazine called Insight, published by the Temple of Understanding.

The Temple of Understanding was set up to represent all world religions and to promote interfaith dialogue and education. Many well-known celebrities have given their public blessing to this 'Temple', including Eleanor Roosevelt, the Dalai Lama, Nehru, Anwar Sadat, Mother Teresa and former Secretary-General of the United Nations, U Thant. At the time that it was founded, Dr. Albert Schweitzer said,

'My hopes and prayers are with you in the realization of this great Temple of Understanding, which has a profound significance...The Spirit burns in many flames.'
a reference to the idea that all religions — which, for interfaithists, includes Christianity — are diverse expressions of the same essential deity.

The Temple of Understanding was the brainchild of a wealthy American woman, Alice Bailey, who had studied comparative religion at Union Theological Seminary in New York. By 1963, it had been sponsored by six thousand politicians, occultists, celebrities, one-world religion advocates and multinational companies, including

Robert McNamara (Major individual sponsor of the Lucis Trust) (then U.S. Secretary of Defence; later head of the World Bank),
John D. Rockefeller IV (major sponsor of the Lucis Trust),
Dr. Henry A. Smith (President, Theosophical Society of America),
Walter N. Thayer (President, New York Herald Tribune),
James Linen (President, Time-Life Inc.),
Milton Mumford (President, Lever Bros.),
Barney Balaban (President, Paramount Pictures),
Thomas B. Watson Jnr. (President, IBM),
Richard Salant (President, CBS News),
Cary Grant (Hollywood actor),
Dr. Martin Israel (renowned teacher in the Church of England); the Presidents of Egypt, India and Israel; representatives of Methodist, Unitarian, Anglican, Spiritualist, Lutheran and Presbyterian churches; various U.N. officials, and many others.

In Trust to Lucifer : The Alice Bailey Inheritance

Alice Bailey, a leading disciple of the occultist Madame Helena Blavatsky, formed the Lucifer Publishing Company in 1920. Previously Alice Bailey a member of the Theosophical Society had noticed at a meeting a portrait on the wall and recognised it as the mysterious visitor she received earlier. This was a picture of one of the so-called "Ascended Masters", known as Kuthumi, who had worked through H.P. Blavatsky.

She was contacted telepathically by another of these Masters, Djwal Khul and this was the beginning of her becoming a psychic channel through which twenty books were received.

Alice Bailey married Foster Bailey — a 33rd degree Freemason and writer on Masonic teachings — and they set up the Lucis Trust. The Trust was founded on the theosophical concepts of a coming world religious confederacy that would unite East and West and of a future World Teacher that would usher in a Golden Age on earth.

Alice Bailey originated the term "New Age", which has been adopted by the modern movement of Neo-Gnostics as an embodiment of many earlier occult, Rosicrucian, Theosophical and alchemical ideals.

The Lucis Trust Publishing Company and their many fronts and organizations worship an "Externalized Hierarchy of "Ascended Masters," who carry out the work of a Luciferian
"master plan" for the establishment of a permanent "Age of Aquarius" ruled by one "Sanat Kumara", the "Lord of the World."

The Lucis Trust is a powerful institution that enjoys "Consultative Status" with the United Nations, which permits it to have a close working relationship with the U.N., a seat on the weekly sessions, but most importantly, influence with powerful world leaders. The Lucis Trust is "aggressively involved in promoting a globalist ideology":

Authors and participants in its various conferences read like a Who's Who of globalist insiders. Featured on its website, for example, is the Universal Declaration of Human Responsibilities, put forth in April 1998 as a companion document to the UN Universal Declaration on Human Rights.

Signatories to the World Goodwill document include:
Helmut Schmidt, former chancellor of West Germany;
Malcolm Fraser, former Australian prime minister;
Oscar Arias Sanchez, former prime minister of Costa Rica;
Shimon Peres;
Robert McNamara;
Paul Volcker;
Jimmy Carter.

It is both a political and occult religious organization. - New Age Roots, by Steve Bonta

Lucis Trust is run through an international board of trustees whose membership is said to have included: John D. Rockefeller; Norman Cousins; Robert S. McNamara; Thomas Watson, Jr. (IBM, former U.S. Ambassador to Moscow); Henry Clauson Grand Commander of the Supreme Council, 33rd Degree, Southern District Scottish Rite and Henry Kissinger. This would then tie Bailey's influential occult organization into the international conspiracy of elitists, including the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), the Bilderbergs, and the Trilateral Commission.
