

NOTHING ELSE

By Chiawuotu Anywanu

Nothing else, (Refrain)
Should engross more of our attention,
Than the solemn messages given in Daniel & Revelation
An intellectual understanding
And a practical preparation
Is what we need
To be sealed
In this final generation!

What is the chaff to the wheat?
What is the iron and clay in the feet?
Have the angels passed over my name?
Have I even received the early rain?

Miller who?
I don't know you!
Cunningly devised fables
Is what I feast on from my table.
Milk still, instead of meat
As Satan lullabies us to sleep.
We neglect the foundation of our faith
Laid from the start
Who we are, where we are
Revealed in the prophetic charts

Nothing else, (Refrain)
Should engross more of our attention,
Than the solemn messages given in Daniel & Revelation
An intellectual understanding
And a practical preparation
Is what we need
To be sealed
In this final generation!

What our Forefathers taught with their lips
They zealously sealed with their blood
Preaching to all ears,
Knowing no fear
But only the Fear of God
Luther preached present truth for His time
With every iota of zeal and breath,
And accomplished a great work

Enervation: The Great Divide

From pauper to town clerk,
Whilst staring in the face of death.

We too have our present truth
And a duty to prepare people to stand
And if we warn not the wicked,
The blood is on our hands, as God gave us the prophecies to understand!

Nothing else should engross more of our attention
Jesus himself said 'read Daniel' to discern the
The last day deceptions
Revelation reveals the lamb slain, and for us He died outside the gate
Yet warns of the Harlot Church who plot to unite
The Church and state

The days of the dark ages
Will be resurrected
A one world system where the Pope is elected
A one world religion where Catholicism is accepted
And Sunday sacredness will be
Revered and respected
Then the image of the Beast, Will be formed and erected
And death is the decree for anyone who rejects this .

Nothing else, (Refrain)
Should engross more of our attention,
Than the solemn messages given in Daniel & Revelation
An intellectual understanding
And a practical preparation
Is what we need
To be sealed
In this final generation!
