

HOW GREAT THOU ART

© WORDS AND ARRANGEMENT COPYRIGHT 1957, BY NORMAN J. CLAYTON
IN THE ALL-GIRL TRIO AND CHOIR NO. 4

Norman J. Clayton

ASSIGNED TO NORMAN CLAYTON PUBLISHING CO.

Old Melody Arr.

Norman J. Clayton

Majestically

1. O Lord most high, Thou ho - ly God and Sav - ior, Thy pow'r and
2. Once far from God, an al - ien and a strang - er, Of hope be -
3. In mer - cy rich, in love and grace a - bound - ing, When we were might are more than tongue can tell, But great - er far the love that planned sal - ref, a sin - ner lost and lone, But Je - sus came to res - cue from the dead in tres - pass - es and sins, Thine on - ly Son for us was free - ly va - tion And saved the lost from sin and death and hell.

CHORUS
danger, To give us life He sac - ri - ficed His own. O God of Love, giv - en, How great Thou art! in Thee our life be - gins.

O God of Cal - va - ry, How great Thou art! How great Thou art! In all the world there is no one like Thee, How great Thou art, How great Thou art!