

You May be Transformed! [Really!]

“The love of God will transform the character, and fashion it after the lovely character of Christ.” Signs of the Times, Vol II, page 251

“Humanity is encompassed with infirmity, But in Christ we shall find perfection. Beholding Him we shall be transformed.” Desire of Ages, page 816

“He who beholds the Saviour's matchless love will be elevated in thought, purified in heart, transformed in character. He will go forth to be a light in the world to reflect in some degree the mysterious love.” Desire of Ages, page 863

“In every place God has His witnesses, who testify to the rich power of His grace. In all their ways they acknowledge God and He directs their path. They testify to the transforming power of the grace of God; for they stand under the blood stained banner of Prince Immanuel.” Review and Herald, Vol. IV, page 27

“Unless the truth of God transforms the Character, it is of no value to the receiver.” Review and Herald, Vol. IV, page 14.

“Through the grace of Christ the highest attainments in character are possible. For every soul who comes under the molding influences of the Spirit of God, may be transformed in mind and heart.” Review and Herald, Vol. III, page 19.

“It is not human but divine power that works transformations of the character.” Review and Herald, Vol. VI, page 162.

“As the heart is converted to the truth, the work of transformation goes on.” Review and Herald, Vol. VI, page 159.

“... as we contemplate the beauty of Christ's character, we become transformed into the divine image.” Signs of the Times, Vol. IV, page 81.

“The grace of Christ expels the selfishness that has hitherto ruled the life. The affections turn to God. The character is transformed.” Review and Herald, Vol. VI, page 92.

All the powers and passions of a converted man are brought under the control of Christ, His Spirit is a renewing power, transforming to the divine image, all who will receive it. Signs of the Times, Vol. II, page 404.

The truly converted man has no time to think or talk of the faults of others. His lips are sanctified, and as God's faithful witness he testifies that the grace of Christ has transformed his heart. Review and Herald, Vol. V, page 237.