

Do Words Really Matter?

What about these 'New' 'bibuls' we are surrounded with? Has God changed? What did He tell us? "For I am the LORD, I change not;" Malachi 3:6.

What did He warn us? "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." Revelation 22:18, 19.

"Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. "Deuteronomy 4:2. "What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it." Deuteronomy 12:32.

YES! WORDS DO MATTER YOU KNOW IT. Even one word changed! What is the difference in a word? If Fred comes home and throws his arms around Betty and kisses her and says "I like you!" Betty is going to wiggle away and say, :What is this???? you like me???...after 30 years of marriage!?! You can just hear Fred squirm now when he says.....Er-a You know Darling like is sort of like love isn't is? I won't finish that little story. It is not a good ending. So you see; WORDS DO MATTER! Even one word changed!

Even 'YE' and 'YOU'? The thing is 'You' does not mean the same thing as 'Ye' in the Bible! 'Ye' is plural and 'You' is singular! When Jesus said 'Ye' He meant all of us, when He said 'You' He meant just the one He was speaking to.

Yah! Like when they leave out 'Yet' in John 7:8 "Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come." That makes Jesus a liar and has ruined the faith of many souls!

God have Mercy on us creatures of Dust who think we can rise up as authorities on God and play around with His Word! AMEN? Like I often wonder in the first temptation, the 'serpent' an animal in a tree, stated to Eve. 'For God doth know that . . .' And Eve never asked 'How does this animal in a tree KNOW what God knows anyway?'

Are we really so stupid these days, and so stuck in cheap slanguage, that we cannot understand the very formal English any more, that little children in the past could use as a primer? And yet we boast of 'Higher Education? Maybe what we need is 'Lower education' sitting at the feet of Jesus in humility as a little child!

We must remember that the Bible is a spiritual book and is understandable to those who are led by God's Spirit. It is not possible for the natural man to understand it. "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." 1 Corinthians 2:14, hence paraphrasing or simplifying it will do no good. The Bible is not supposed to read like a fairy tale! Peter said, "For we have not followed cunningly devised fables." 2 Peter 1:16. The words of the Authorized King James are not laborious to me, they are beautiful and full of God's power. Even the world knows it; the Authorized King James has been listed on Norton Anthology's list of "the world's best literature" for decades. Amen!!
