

Surprising Facts Series 2

27. When There is No Turning Back!

During World War II airmen were terrified at the words "point of no return." To pass this point meant that their plane did not have enough fuel to return to their base. They had flown too far. There was no turning back. What a tragedy! But there is something worse that can happen to a person. It is far worse to come to the point of no return in your relationship with God. Yet millions are fast approaching this hopeless moment and don't even realize it. Is it possible that you are one of them? What is this awful sin that takes one past the point of no return with God? Why can't God forgive it?

1. What is the sin that God cannot forgive?

"All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men." Matthew 12:31.

Answer: The sin God cannot forgive is "blasphemy against the Holy Ghost." But what is "blasphemy against the Holy Ghost"? People have many different beliefs about this sin. Some believe it is murder; some, cursing the Holy Ghost; some, committing suicide; some, killing an unborn child; some, denial of Christ; some, a heinous, horrible, extremely wicked act; and others, worshipping a false god! The next question will shed some helpful light on this crucial matter.

2. What does the Bible say about sin and blasphemy?

"All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men." Matthew 12:31.

Answer: The Bible clearly says that all kinds of sin and blasphemy will be forgiven. So none of the sins listed above is the sin that God cannot forgive. No single act of any kind is the unpardonable sin.

Sounds Contradictory

Yes, it sounds contradictory, but both of the following statements are true:

- A. Any and every kind of sin and blasphemy will be forgiven.
- B. The blasphemy or sin against the Holy Ghost will not be forgiven.

Jesus made both statements in Matthew 12:31, so there is no error here. To harmonize the statements we must discover the work of the Holy Ghost. By the way, the word "ghost" comes from "ghast," the Old English word for "spirit." Murder, though terrible, is not the sin God cannot forgive.

3. What is the work of the Holy Ghost, or Spirit?

"And when He [the Holy Spirit] is come, He will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:" "Howbeit when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth: for He shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and He will shew you things to come." John 16:8, 13.

Answer: The work of the Holy Spirit is to convict me of sin and to guide me into all truth. The Holy Spirit is God's agency for conversion. Without the Holy Spirit, no one feels sorrow for sin, nor is anyone ever converted. The Holy Spirit guides people to Bible truth.

4. When the Holy Spirit convinces me of sin, what must I do to be forgiven?

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9.

Answer: When convicted of sin by the Holy Spirit, I must confess my sins in order to be forgiven. When I confess them, God not only forgives me but He also miraculously cleanses me from all unrighteousness. God is waiting and ready to forgive me for any and every sin I may commit "For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee." Psalm 86:5, but only if I confess and forsake it. God will forgive any sin that I confess to Him.

5. What happens if I do not confess my sins when convicted by the Holy Spirit?

"He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." Proverbs 28:13.

Answer: If I do not confess my sins, Jesus cannot forgive my sins. Thus, any sin that I do not confess is unpardonable until I confess it, because forgiveness always follows confession. It never goes before it.

Terrible Danger of Resisting the Holy Spirit: Resisting the Holy Spirit is terribly dangerous because it so easily leads to rejection of the Holy Spirit, which is the sin God can never forgive. It is passing the point of no return. Since the Holy Spirit is the only agency given to bring me conviction, if I permanently reject Him, my case is thereafter hopeless. This subject is so important that God illustrates and explains it many different ways in Scripture. Watch for these different explanations as you continue exploring this lesson.

6. When the Holy Spirit convicts me of sin or leads me to new truth, when should I act?

Answer: The Bible says:

A. "As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me." Psalm 18:44.

B. "I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments." Psalm 119:60.

C. "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." 2 Corinthians 6:2.

D. "And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptised, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord." Acts 22:16.

The Bible repeatedly states that when I am convicted of sin, I must confess it at once. And when I learn new truth, I must accept it without delay. Those who cover up sin rather than confessing it will not be blessed of God.

7. What solemn warning does God give about the pleading of His Holy Spirit?

"My spirit shall not always strive with man." Genesis 6:3.

Answer: God solemnly warns that the Holy Spirit does not indefinitely continue pleading with a person to turn from sin and obey God. When convicted of sin by the Holy Spirit, I must respond at once. God warned the people in Noah's day that His Holy Spirit would not keep pleading with them forever; nor will it today.

8. At what point does the Holy Spirit stop pleading with a person?

"Therefore speak I to them in parables: because ... hearing they hear not." Matthew 13:13.

Answer: The Holy Spirit stops talking to a person when that individual becomes deaf to His voice. The Bible describes it as hearing, but hearing not. There is no point in setting the alarm on a clock in a deaf person's room. He won't hear it. Likewise, a person can condition himself to not hear an alarm clock ring by repeatedly shutting it off and not getting up. The day finally comes when the alarm goes off and he does not hear it.

Don't Shut Off the Holy Spirit. So it is with the Holy Spirit. If I keep shutting Him off, one day He will speak to me and I will not hear Him. When that day comes, the Spirit sadly turns away from me because I have become deaf to His pleadings. I have passed the point of no return. What a solemn, disquieting warning against resisting the Spirit's voice! Shutting off an alarm clock instead of getting up will bring me to the place where I no longer hear it. In the same way, shutting off the Holy Spirit will cause me to become deaf to His voice.

9. God, through His Holy Spirit, brings light and conviction to every person on earth. “That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.” John 1:9. “And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:” John 16:8. What must I do when I receive light from the Holy Spirit?

"The path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. The way of the wicked is as darkness." Proverbs 4:18, 19. "Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you." John 12:35.

Answer: The Bible rule is that when the Holy Spirit brings me new light or conviction of sin, I must act at once-obey without delay. If I obey and walk in the light as I receive it, God will continue giving me light. If I refuse, even the light that I have will go out, and I will be left in darkness. The darkness that comes from a persistent and final refusal to follow light is the result of rejecting the Spirit, and it leaves me without hope. When I receive new light from God's Word, I must follow it at once without delay.

10. Can any sin become the sin against the Holy Spirit?

Answer: Yes, if I steadfastly refuse to confess and forsake any sin, I will eventually become deaf to the Holy Spirit's pleading and thus pass the point of no return. Following are a few Bible examples:

A. Judas' unpardonable sin was covetousness. “This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.” John 12:6. Why? Was it because God could not forgive it? No! It became unpardonable only because Judas refused to listen to the Holy Spirit and confess his sin of covetousness. Eventually he became deaf to the Spirit's voice.

B. Lucifer's unpardonable sins were pride and self-exaltation. “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.” Isaiah 14:12-14. God can forgive these sins. Lucifer could have been pardoned and cleansed, but he refused to listen until he could no longer hear the Spirit's voice.

C. The Pharisees' unpardonable sin was refusal to accept Jesus as the Messiah (Mark 3:22-30). They were convinced repeatedly with deep, heartfelt conviction that Jesus was the Messiah, the Son of the living God of heaven. But they hardened their hearts and stubbornly refused to accept Him as Saviour and Lord. Finally they grew deaf to the Spirit's voice. Then one day, after another great miracle by Jesus, the Pharisees told the multitude that Jesus received His power from the devil. Christ at once told them that attributing His miracle-working power to the devil indicated they had passed the point of no return and had blasphemed the Holy Ghost. God could have, and joyfully would have, forgiven them. But they refused until they were stone deaf to the Holy Spirit and could no longer be reached.

I Cannot Choose the Consequences: When the Spirit makes His appeal, I can choose to respond or refuse, but I cannot choose the consequences. They are fixed. If I consistently respond, I will become like Jesus. The Holy Spirit will seal, or mark, me in the forehead as a child of God and thus assure me of a place in God's heavenly kingdom. "And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads." Revelation 7:2, 3. If I persistently refuse to respond, I will grieve the Holy Spirit away and He will leave me forever, thus sealing my doom. What a solemn warning against ignoring the Holy Spirit!

11. After King David had committed a terrible double sin of adultery and murder what anguished prayer did he pray?

"Take not thy holy spirit from me." Psalm 51:11.

Answer: He pleaded with God not to take the Holy Spirit away from him. Why? Because David knew if the Holy Spirit left him, he was doomed from that moment. He knew that only the Holy Spirit could lead him to repentance and restoration, and he trembled at the thought of becoming deaf to His voice. The Bible tells us in another place that God finally left Ephraim alone because he was joined to his idols and would not listen to the Spirit. "Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone." Hosea 4:17. He had become spiritually deaf. The most tragic thing that can happen to any person is for God to have to turn away and leave him alone. Don't let it happen to you!

12. What serious, weighty command did Paul give to the church in Thessalonica?

"Quench not the Spirit." 1 Thessalonians 5:19.

Answer: The Holy Spirit's pleading is like a fire that burns in a person's mind and heart. Sin has the same effect on the Holy Spirit as water has upon fire. As I ignore the Holy Spirit and continue in sin, I pour water on the fire of the Holy Spirit. Paul's awesome words to the Thessalonians also apply to us today. Don't quench the fire of the Holy Spirit by repeatedly refusing to heed the Spirit's voice. If the fire goes out, I have passed the point of no return.

Any Sin Can Quench the Fire: Any unconfessed or unforsaken sin can ultimately snuff out the fire of the Holy Spirit. It could be refusal to keep God's holy seventh-day Sabbath. It could be use of tobacco. It could be failure to forgive one who has betrayed or otherwise injured you. It could be immorality. It could be keeping God's tithe. Refusal to obey the Holy Spirit's voice in any area pours water on the fire of the Holy Spirit. Don't put out the fire. No greater tragedy could take place. Sin is like water. Continuing in sin puts out the fire of the Holy Spirit.

13. What other shocking, almost unthinkable statement did Paul make to the Thessalonian believers?

"And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned [lost] who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness." 2 Thessalonians 2:10-12.

Answer: What powerful, shocking words! God says that those who refuse to receive the truth and conviction brought by the Holy Spirit will (after the Spirit departs from them) receive a strong delusion to believe that error is truth. Talk about a sobering thought!

14. What wrenching experience will some who have been sent these strong delusions face in the judgment day?

"Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Matthew 7:22, 23.

Answer: Those who are crying "Lord, Lord" will be shocked and stunned that they are shut out. They will be absolutely positive that they are saved. Jesus will then doubtless remind them of that crucial time in their lives when the Holy Spirit brought new truth and conviction. It was crystal clear and obviously true. It kept them awake nights, troubled and wrestling over a decision. How their hearts burned within them! Finally, they said, "No!" And they refused to listen further to the Holy Spirit. Then came a strong delusion that caused them to feel saved when they were lost. Could a human being face any greater tragedy?

15. What special words of warning does Jesus give to help us avoid believing we are saved when we are actually lost?

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Matthew 1:21.

Answer: Jesus solemnly warned that not all who have the feeling of assurance will enter His kingdom, but rather, only those who do His will. All of us desire assurance of salvation. It is a divine imperative. However, there is a false offer of assurance sweeping Christendom today that promises people salvation while they continue living in sin and manifest no changed lifestyle whatever. This will shut many professed Christians out of heaven because they refuse to obey the Lord. Assurance that disobeys God is a false assurance that will doom many.

Pastors Alarmed: More and more prominent church leaders are alarmed that so many church buildings are packed with people who have the feeling of "assurance," yet really have not been changed by Jesus Christ. Nor do they obey Him.

Jesus Clears the Air: Jesus says that true assurance is only for those who do His Father's will. When I accept Jesus as Lord and Ruler of my life, my lifestyle will change radically. I will become a completely new creature. "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17. I will gladly keep His commandments, do His will. "If ye love me, keep my commandments." John 14:15, and joyously follow where He leads. "For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:" 1 Peter 2:21.

His fantastic resurrection power, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Philippians 3:10, transforms me to His image. "But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord." 2 Corinthians 3:18. His glorious peace floods my life. "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." John 14:27. With Jesus dwelling in me through His Spirit, "That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love," Ephesians 3:16, 17, "I can do all things" (Philippians 4:13) and "nothing shall be impossible" (Matthew 17:20).

Fabulous True Assurance Versus foolish Counterfeit Assurance: As I follow where the Saviour leads, He promises that no one can take me out of His hand "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." John 10:28 and that a crown of life awaits me. "Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." Revelation 2:10. What amazing, glorious, genuine security Jesus gives His followers! Assurance promised under any other conditions is counterfeit. It will lead people to heaven's judgment bar, feeling certain they are saved when they are, in fact, lost. "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." Proverbs 16:25.

16. What is God's blessed promise to His faithful followers who crown Him Lord of their lives?

"He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure." Philippians 1:6; 2:13.

Answer: Praise God! Those who make Jesus the Lord and Ruler of their lives are promised the miracles of Jesus that will see them safely through to His eternal kingdom. Nothing could be better than that! If I make Jesus the Lord of my life, He promises to save me in His kingdom.

17. What additional glorious promise does Jesus make to us all?

"Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." Revelation 3:20.

Answer: Jesus promises to enter our lives when we open the door to Him. It is Jesus who knocks on the door of your heart and mine through His Holy Spirit. He, the King of kings, the Saviour of the world, - takes time from superintending the universe to come to you and me for regular loving visits and friendly, caring guidance and counsel. What folly, what an unbelievable calamity, that we should ever be too busy or too disinterested to form a warm, loving, lasting friendship with Jesus. Jesus promises to enter my life when I open the door to Him. Jesus' close friends will be in no danger of being rejected on the judgment day. Jesus will personally welcome them into His kingdom. "Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:" (Matthew 25:34.

18. Will you decide now to always open the door as Jesus knocks at your heart and be willing to follow where He leads you? Your Answer: _____

A Parting Word: This is the final lesson in our series of 27. Our loving desire is that you have been led into the presence of Jesus and have experienced a fantastic new relationship with Him. We hope that you will walk closer to the Master every day and will soon join that joyous group who will be translated into His blessed kingdom at His appearing. If we do not meet on this earth, let us agree to meet in the clouds on that great day. Plan to be part of that joyous group who will meet in the clouds on the day of His appearing.

Your Thought Questions Answered.

1. The Bible says that God hardened Pharaoh's heart. "And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses." Exodus 9:12. That doesn't seem fair. What does it mean?

ANSWER: The Holy Spirit pleads with all people. "That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world." John 1:9, just as the sun shines upon everyone and everything. The same sun that hardens clay also melts wax. The Holy Spirit also has a different effect upon our hearts depending upon how we relate to His pleadings. If I respond, my heart will be softened and I will be changed completely. "And the Spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man." 1 Samuel 10:6. If I resist the Spirit, my heart will be hardened. "Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts. Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts: " Zechariah 7:12, 13.

Pharaoh's Response: Pharaoh actually hardened his own heart by resisting the Holy Spirit (Exodus 8:15, 32; 9:34). But the Bible also speaks of God hardening his heart because God's Holy Spirit kept pleading with Pharaoh. Since Pharaoh kept resisting, his heart hardened as sun hardens clay. Had Pharaoh listened, his heart would have softened as the sun softens wax.

Judas and Peter: Christ's disciples Judas and Peter demonstrated this same principle. Both had sinned grievously. One betrayed and the other denied Jesus. Which is worse? Who can tell? The same warm Holy Spirit pleaded with both. Judas steeled himself, and his heart became like stone. Peter, on the other hand, was receptive to the Spirit and his heart melted. He was truly repentant and later became one of the greatest preachers in the apostolic church. Zechariah 7:12, 13 gives us God's sobering warning about hardening our hearts against hearing and obeying His Spirit's pleadings.

2. What do you think about asking for "signs" from the Lord?

ANSWER: In the New Testament, Jesus speaks decidedly against it. He said, "An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign." Matthew 12:39. He was teaching truth and supporting it from the Old Testament, which was the Scriptures then available. They understood all too well what He was saying. They also saw His miracles, but they still rejected Him. Later He said, "If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead." Luke 16:31. The Bible tells us to test everything by Scripture (Isaiah 8:19, 20). If we commit to do Jesus' will and follow where He leads, He promises that He will help us discern truth from error. "If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself." John 7:17.

3. Is there ever a time when prayer is not helpful?

ANSWER: Yes. If a person knowingly disobeys God (Psalm 66:18) and yet asks God to bless him (though he does not plan to change), that person's prayer not only is worthless, but God says it is an abomination (Proverbs 28:9).

4. I'm deeply concerned that I may have rejected the Holy Spirit and cannot be forgiven. I Can you help me?

ANSWER: You have not rejected the Holy Spirit. You can know that, because you feel concerned or convicted. It is only the Holy Spirit who brings you concern and conviction (John 16:8-13). If the Holy Spirit had left you, there would be no concern or conviction in your heart. Rejoice and praise God! Give Him your life now! And prayerfully follow and obey Him in the days ahead. He will give you victory (1 Corinthians 15:57), uphold you (Philippians 2:13), and keep you until His second advent (Philippians 1:6).

5. In the parable of the sower (Luke 8:5-18), what is meant by the seed that fell by the wayside and was eaten by fowls?

ANSWER: The Bible says, "The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved." Luke 8:11, 12. Jesus is pointing out that when we understand what the Holy Spirit is asking us to do regarding some new light from the Scripture, we must act at once. Otherwise, the devil has the opportunity to remove that truth from our minds.

6. How can the Lord say "I never knew you" to the people He is addressing in Matthew 7:21-23? I thought God knew everybody and everything!

ANSWER: God is referring here to knowing someone as a personal friend. We get to know Him as a friend when we commune with Him daily, follow Him gladly, and freely share with Him our joys and sorrows as with an earthly friend. Jesus also says, "Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you." John 15:14. The people being addressed in Matthew chapter 7 have rejected His Holy Spirit. They have embraced a theology of salvation in sin or salvation by works—neither of which needs Jesus. They are self-made people who did not take time to become acquainted with Jesus. Hence, He explains that He did not really get acquainted with them or know them as His personal friends.

7. Can you explain Ephesians 4:30?

ANSWER: The verse says, "Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption." Paul is here clearly implying that the Holy Spirit is a personal Being, because only persons can be grieved. Even more important, he is affirming that the Holy Spirit of Christ can be grieved away by my rejection of His loving appeals. As a courtship can be ended forever by the repeated refusal of one party to the other's wooing, so our relationship with the Holy Spirit can end permanently by our persistent refusal to respond to His loving appeals.

Summary Sheet. Place a check beside the correct answers.

1. Any sin may become the sin that God cannot forgive. ___ Yes. ___ No.

2. The sin against the Holy Ghost is:

___ Murder.

___ Cursing God.

___ Continually Rejecting the Holy Spirit.

3. The Holy Spirit must sometimes sadly withdraw from a sinner because:

___ The Holy Spirit has other things to do.

___ The Holy Spirit has righteous indignation over the sinner's bad attitude.

God tells Him to do something else.

The sinner has become deaf to His entreaties.

4. Jesus, in the New Testament, taught against asking for signs.  Yes.  No.

5. When the Lord says "I never knew you" at the judgment, He means:

He does not know who the person is.

The face is familiar, but He has forgotten the name.

The person never took the time to get acquainted with Him as a personal friend.

6. The Holy Spirit may be "quenched" by continuing in sin when you know better.

Yes.  No.

7. Any sin or blasphemy will be forgiven if I:

Pray enough about it.

Sincerely confess it to Jesus.

Fast for several days.

Witness faithfully.

8. Check the items that are the work of the Holy Spirit according to John 16:8, 13: "And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:" "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come."

Teach me how to sing.

Give me the gift of prophecy.

Keep me happy.

Convict me of sin.

Lead me to truth.

9. Without the Holy Spirit, no one ever feels sorrow for sin, nor is anyone ever converted.

True.  False.

10. When the Holy Spirit convicts me of a new truth or points out a sin in my life, I should:

Ask the pastor about it.

Go see a psychic.

Ask God for a sign.

Follow the Spirit's guidance without hesitation.

Flip a coin.

11. Why did David plead with God not to remove the Holy Spirit from him?

Because the Holy Spirit helped him play his harp.

Because he was afraid the Holy Spirit might take his life.

Because he knew he would be a lost man if the Spirit departed from him.

12. Assurance of salvation can sometimes be counterfeit. Some people who are certain they are saved are actually lost.  Yes.  No.

13. According to Matthew 7:21-23, for a person to have worked miracles, cast out devils, prophesied in Jesus' name, and claimed Him as Lord will not be enough in the judgment day. What else did Jesus say was absolutely essential?

Doing a lot of witnessing.

Praying often in public.

Fasting often.

Attending church regularly.

Doing the will of the heavenly Father.

14. According to 2 Thessalonians 2:10-12, what will happen to those who continually refuse to receive the truth?

They will be saved anyway.

God will ask them to reconsider.

God will send them a strong delusion, and they will believe that a lie is the truth.

15. Will you decide now to always listen to and heed Jesus as He speaks to you through His Holy Spirit?

Yes.  No.
